Farewell McKinley!

Sad youth walks with lagging tread
These friendly halls—where years have sped,
And in each silent corridor
Dreams scenes that lived short times before,
—Grown precious as he sees them o'er.

Along these halls walk all his friends
Phantoms, who each in shadow blends.
Here is the crowded trophy case:
Ah, but this class has filled its place!
With bright awards in every space!

The music room all year has viewed
Life's dramas, from this, its latest brood.
Rehearsals of band or glee club here,
Dances and parties held in its sphere.
—In parting, they all return so clear!

Dear Alma Mater, you've helped him see
That glory's not all in victory—
In football, track or swimming test
It's not the one who comes out best,
But the one who can FAIRLY face the rest.

Each reminiscence fades to nought
As his footsteps echo this silent thought—
"Farewell, McKinley!—My love for thee Ever a flame in my heart shall be."

September

4. The doors open to admit the gang . . . sophomores and freshmen all get lost, to say nothing of our senior guides.
5. Everybody is too busy getting acquainted to weep over homework . . . (as yet)
6. First assembly of the year . . . freshmen and sophomores get the "low down" on McKinley.
9. The new football neckerchiefs and mittens . . . "the latest styles in feetball finery" . . . make their debut.
10. Falling arches and sagging muscles results of first band rehearsal.
11. Miss Motschman and Mr. Swan, senior advisers, introduced in first senior assembly of the year.
12. The call goes out for all those industrious youths who wish to lead the cheers at all the games of the year. "Beat Massillon!"
13. McKinley pigskin heroes beat Cleveland Lincoln at the first home night game in McKinley's history.
16. 'Times" campaign begins. Buy a Times . . . or else! "The best for your money."
17. Constitution day calls out all the seniors and juniors in their first assembly together. McKinley stickers "with the compliments of the girl Boosters" are beginning to appear everywhere.
18. Gangway, everybody! The Booster girls have started selling pencils! The junior girls "get acquainted" at their first party after school.
19. Sophomore girls raise the roof at a "Spirit of '43" party after school.
20. McKinley Bulldogs beat Akron South in a smashing victory with a score of 57-12.
23. The juniors are introduced to their advisers . . . Miss Clark and Mr. Weedman - "for better or for worse."
24. For convenience sake the detention rooms have been changed . . . now the inmates won't have so far to go every night.
25. Senior soap-box campaigns are over. Results of the election: president, Ray Hooper . . . vice-president, Jim Staudt . . . secretary, Dot Stewart . . . and treasurer, Richard Might.
26. Girls Boosters hold their first assembly. First Times out!
27. Big election day for freshmen and juniors . . . they choose their officers and councilmen. Developments? Later.
28. Poor Ol' Lehman! We trimmed 'em again at football - 51 to 13.

October

1. Results of the sophomore election: president, Bertha Smock . . . vice-president, Betty Hagerman . . . Betty Fry, secretary . . . treasurer, Dorothy Groves . . . this is just proof of all the old sayings about the fair female sex rising above the lowly male.
2. More election returns . . . the junior officers are . . . president, Bob Pickard; vice- president, Bob Walters; secretary, Francis Fair; and treasurer, Al Batza.
3. All the "little sisters" are given a party after school by the Girls' Service League.
4. 'Nother victory for the Bulldogs! They whipped Sandusky 31-6.
7. Flash! Our own Mr. Riley was seen running in the hall!

8. More elections. This time it's Booster officers. For further details . . . read your Times.
9. Coach Reed was "reminded of a story" several times during the Booster assembly today. Those stories will go down in history!
10. Our Times editor (Mary Woolley) chooses the oddest moments and places to rest. We found her reclining in the middle of the hall floor.
11. McKinley blasted Warren today - 34 to 0. And did you see that band? During the half they marched down the field all lit up. (Don't get excited . . . the lights were in their caps.)
14. Staff kids are just recovering from their hayride Saturday night. "And a good time was had by all."
15. McKinleyites know where to go for candy during home room periods. 330 is always crowded.
16. I won't keep you in suspense any longer. Girls' Booster officers are president, Marion Homan . . . vice-president, Dorothy McCully . . . secretary, Betty Jane Anthony . . . and treasurer, Donna Shockey.
17. The seniors learn how to use the telephone in assembly today. (As if they didn't know already.)
18. "Harvest Moon" was the theme of the seniors' first party . . . where they cut the rug to the tune of Tony Rose's orchestra.
19. McKinley went in to get a victory from Erie Academy, only to come out with a tie! Score: 6-6.
21. Watch out everybody! Grace Webborn, "Poet Laureate of McKinley," has started writing poems about everybody in sight!
22. Miss Shumaker gives a tea for Girls' Service League.
23. REPORT CARDS! the most dreaded phrase in the English language.
24. The Senior Choral club was given the air today. They sang over WHBC.
25. The Bulldogs beat Alliance 25-0 in the last night game of the season. Could be that the pep assembly for the seniors helped.
26. The juniors jive to the rhythm of the Canton Coeds at their "Touchdown Hop."
28. Louis Elsaesser III joins the ranks of the staff. Looks like his carefree childhood days are over.
29. My, how tempus fugits! We signed our course slips for the second semester today.
30. Witches and bats reign supreme in all the club meetings - just ask the kids who were initiated into Art League.
31. Hallowe'en . . . nuf sed.

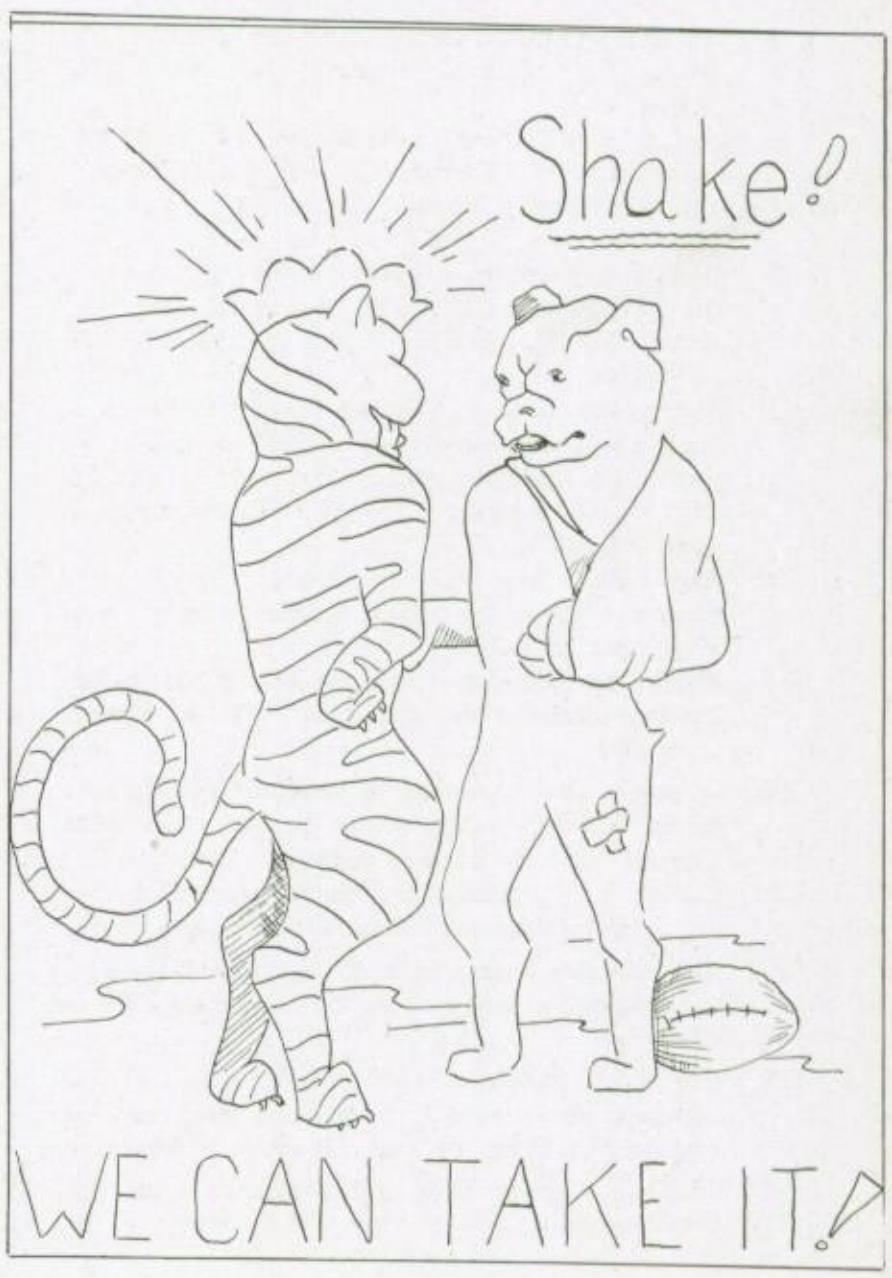
November

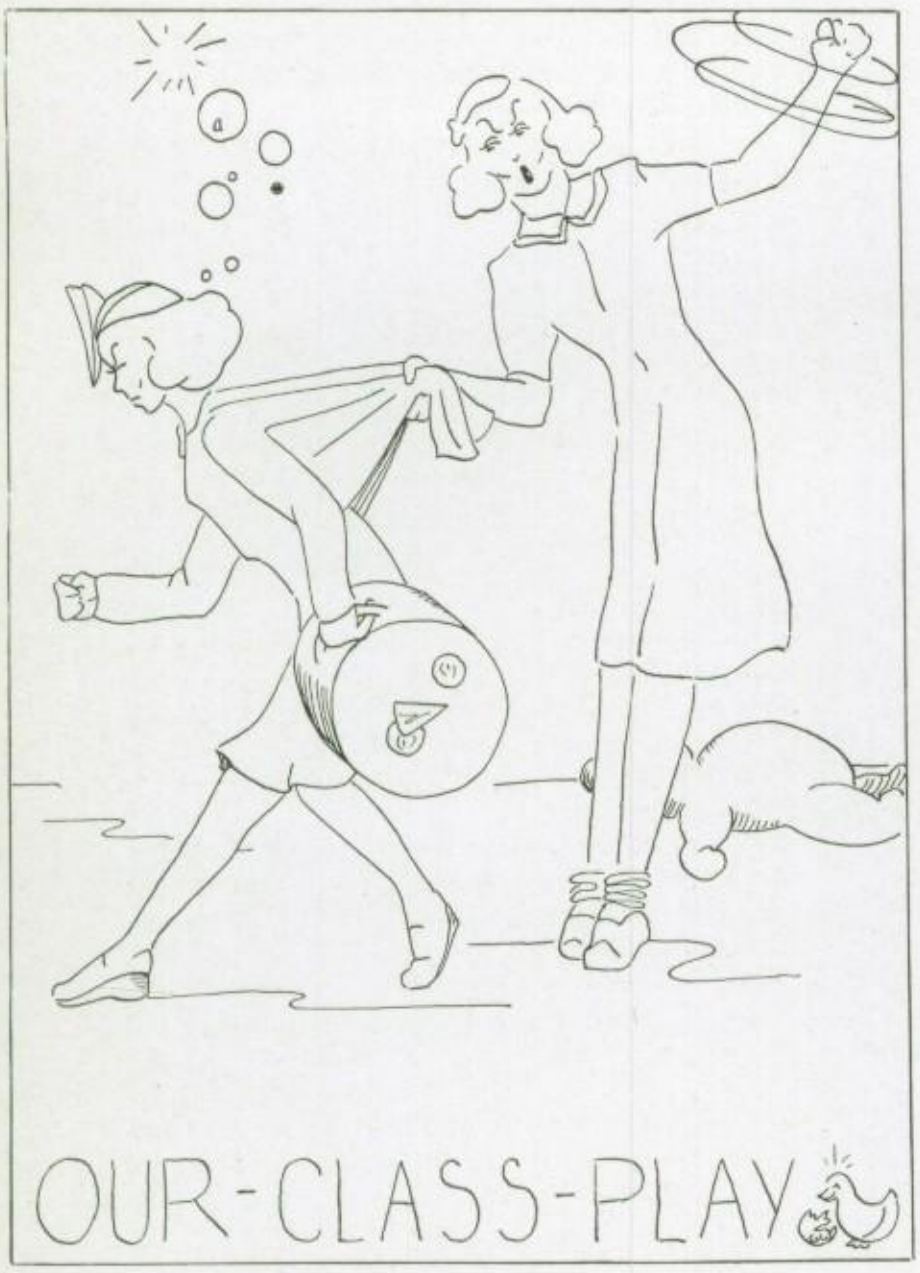
1. The teachers (bless 'em) carry out the ancient tradition of going to the Cleveland convention. Teary-eyed students, resigned to their fate, accept the holiday with genuine regret.
2. Our Bulldogs are on the go again. This time it's Steubenville we trimmed 32-2. And the band went along.
4. From the sound of this place, you'd think the fate of tomorrow's presidential election hung on class debates and discussions.

5. Studies are disregarded as student politicians heckle back and forth about the presidential election today.
6. Junior assembly today to commemorate Armistice day. Those four-legged objects down on the floor backed Mr. Wilkie.
7. 'Nother Armistice assembly. For the seniors. Mr. Deetz sang and a pageant was given.
8. Sophomores and freshmen have their Armistice day assembly.
9. The McKinley Bulldogs win again! They licked Mansfield 28-7.
11. Aha! We notice by the Cleveland Plain Dealer that McKinley really does have a football team . . . in spite of some rumors heard from a little town eight miles west. The team had their pictures in yesterday.
12. Mr. Pottorf breaks the news gently to the seniors in assembly about the psychological test tomorrow.
13. The thirteenth! and the seniors and freshmen have to take their psychological tests while the "underclassmen" learn how to study in their assembly.
14. Didn't I tell you the Times gives you the "best for your money"? Complete sell-out today.
16. Massillon beat us today . . . but wait till next year!
18. The juniors and seniors take in some more ideas today in assembly. Mr. "Razor" Fenton, noted gangster, spoke. (But heck, he's reformed).
19. The freshmen and sophomores thrill to the celestial music of the Senior Choral club for the first time today in their Thanksgiving day assembly.
20. The juniors and seniors have their Thanksgiving assembly today. The student body honors the Bulldogs at the Band-football dance.
21. Thanksgiving day. No school until Monday. Yippee! Bless those Pilgrims!
25. Riots run galore today! Boys' Leaders initiation. The halls were just full of meek, kneeling shoe-shiners.
26. The sale of tickets for the class play is in full swing.
27. Excess food and a lack of dishes characterize the Girls' Service League dinner. And the girls were all wound up in their work. (Knitting).
28. The seniors saw a bit of the class play in assembly today.
29. "The Lovely Duckling" swims again . . . in junior assembly.

December

2. We see by yesterday's paper that we're going to lose Coach Reed. It must have been his history classes.
3. Report cards again! Why young folks leave home.
5. The first performance of the "Lovely Duckling" was given tonight. A howling success.
6. "It's all over now" was the lament that arose from the direction of the class play cast as the curtain rang down on another successful performance.

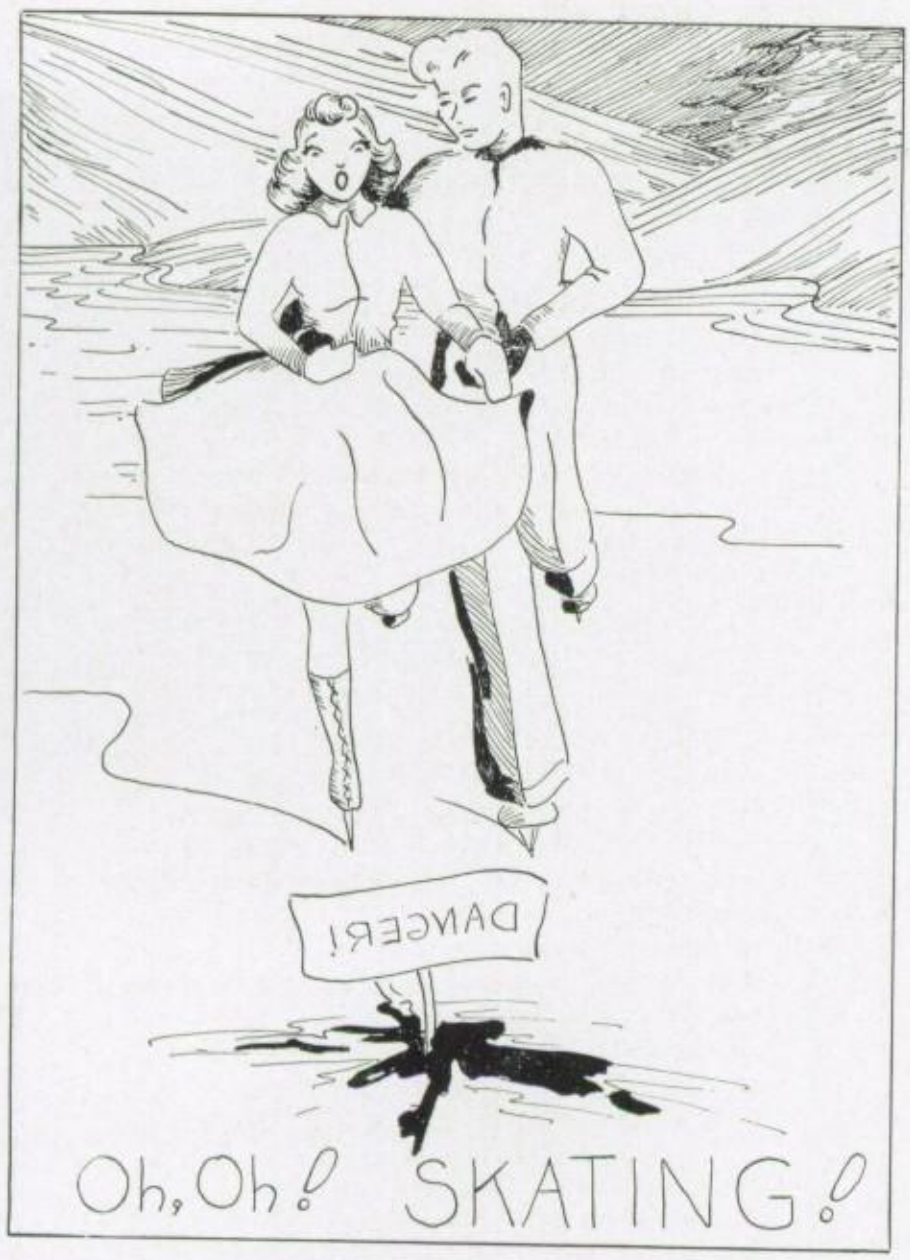




8. "Double Trouble" in the family . . . it comes to Mr. Barkley in the form of twins.
9. Quote: "At last we eat!" unquote . . . the team has their football banquet at Timken.
10. The latest thing—girls' boots! Ain't it awful? Protection from floods I guess. Now, all we need is safety from earthquakes.
11. You wouldn't know our lobby. The art students have fixed it up with stained glass windows, candles, and a Christmas tree. Christmas must be just around the corner (if you know which corner).
12. Even the sober (are they ever) seniors are beginning to brighten up as St. Nick time draws near.
13. We did it again. The Cleveland Lincolnites went home with long faces. Score - 47 to 28.
14. The sophomores have their Christmas party in the music room. And have you noticed them lately? They're showing signs of growing up.
15. The Choral club outdid themselves in their presentation of the "Messiah." It made us feel all good and Christmasy.
16. And now Betty Sheil is on the staff. OH! what is this place coming to?
17. Dramatic club pledges have taken their "bitter cup." That's right . . . initiation day.
18. This was a red-letter day. We beat Lehman 45 to 18. (Thanks, boys, nice Christmas present). And the youngsters (freshmen, of course) had a party after school . . . Some day they'll be old enough to have their parties at night.
19. The Choral club sings for the freshmen-sophomore assembly. Everybody is passing out Christmas spirit right and left. (I didn't say "spirits" either).
20. With the Choral club's carols ringing in their ears, students whizzed away for vacation and in another minute only the faithful teachers were left. And not for long.

January

6. Sighs of joy fill the corridor as students return to their dear Alma Mater for the "second half."
7. The skating ponds are quite popular now that winter has made up its mind to stay.
8. McKinley seniors are patriotic except that some of them are "last minute men" instead of "minute men" . . . the way they're dashing around trying to get their annual pictures in on time . . . !
9. The juniors are reminded in assembly of the Massillon game tomorrow.
10. Eddie Coleman gives the seniors the "low-down on Bup Rearick's past in their pep assembly today—which must have had a good effect on the team. They beat Massillon 24-23.
13. Our Thespians played the part of the good neighbor by giving a tea for the Lehman Thespians.
15. The boy and girl Boosters get together in one of their rousing assemblies.
16. The Booster girls are at it again. That's right . . . more pencils.
17. Old Man Flu is playing havoc with our attendance record. The peak was reached today . . . 569 absent.



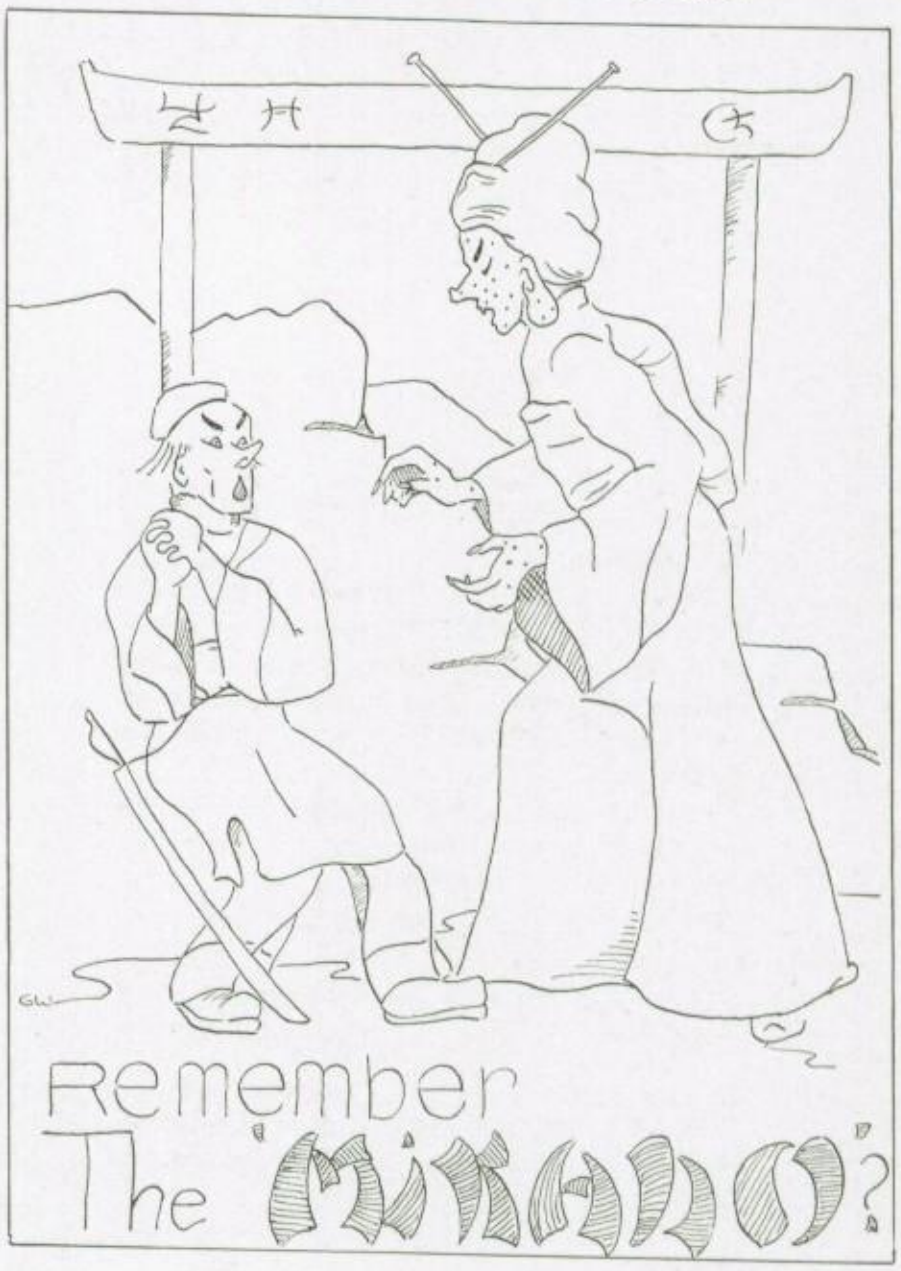
21. Nothing is going to happen during the next three days except (woe is us!) exams.
27. Back to school after a strenuous week-end. (Spell it w-e-a-k).
31. The 1941 McKinleyite (rated by famous critics the world over as the best ever to be published) got a boost or two in the freshman-sophomore assembly.

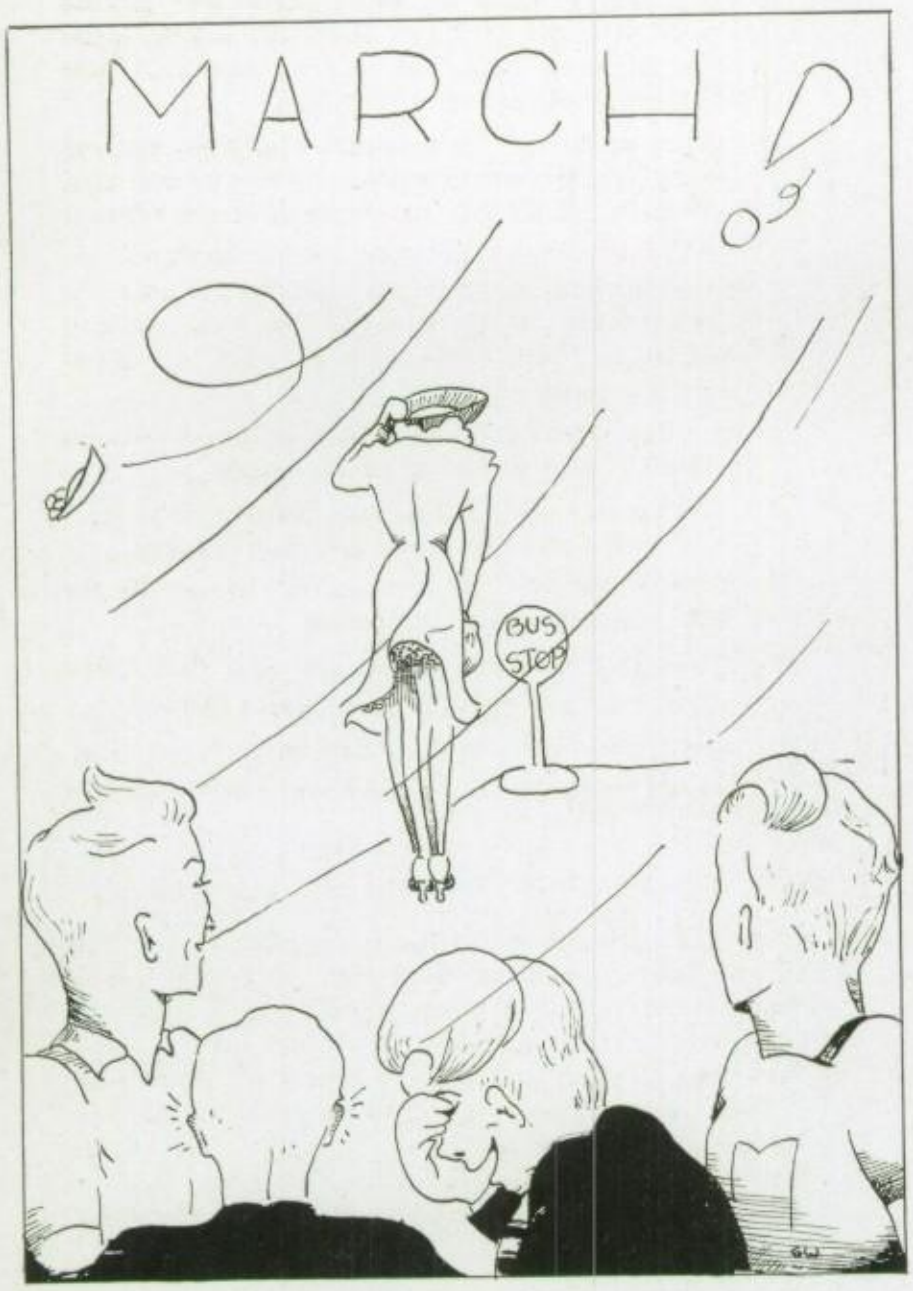
February

3. A horned toad, a monkey, a kangaroo, dogs and freshmen were some of the animals in the sophomore assembly today.
4. The annual staff again mounts the stage as they preach about their brainchild in the junior assembly.
7. McKinley again takes over Massillon in a 41-28 victory. 'Ray for our side!
8. The seniors have their last party on "Cupid's Night Out."
11. It's too much to bear. Timken beat us 31-27.
12. It might be Lincoln's birthday, but that defeat last night put mile-long faces on our loyal McKinleyites. The place is as quiet as a tomb.
14. Hearts are light again as Cupid does his stuff for our school sweethearts.
17. The freshmen and sophomores hear a bit of "The Mikado" in their assembly. (Might, Clapper and Barnes wowed 'em with their trio).
20. Knees sounding like castanets, candidates for the Yale and Harvard teams tried out after school.
21. Orchids to those eight who had leading roles in the "Mikado" not to mention the chorus and 'Knee-Ban' (none other than Helen Meacham).
22. Last performance of the operetta. Nice work, Choral club.
28. The Yale Blue beat the Harvard Reds, 24-19.

March

1. "In like lion and out like a lamb" is the old saying. At any rate the first part is right.
4. The seniors and juniors were spell-bound today in their "House of Magic" assembly. And Rome lived again at the Latin club's Roman banquet.
7. Junior Party. For further details . . . ask a junior.
9. Our band gives their annual concert. A grand way to spend the afternoon. You wouldn't think "Stormy Weather" could be so smooth.
14. Today's and tomorrow's results will tell us whether or not our basketball boys go to the state tournament.
15. We do! (Go to Columbus, I mean). McKinley's speech department played host at the speech tournament today. There were 531 contestants.
21. After beating Middletown yesterday we were downed by Martins Ferry's cagers in the finals of the state basketball tournament. Sophomore party tonight . . . Tom Thumb wedding . . . Dean Lauritzen was a charming bride and you should have seen bridesmaid VanAlmen's muscles.
22. The senior choristers go traveling, too. They appear in the district contest at Kent.





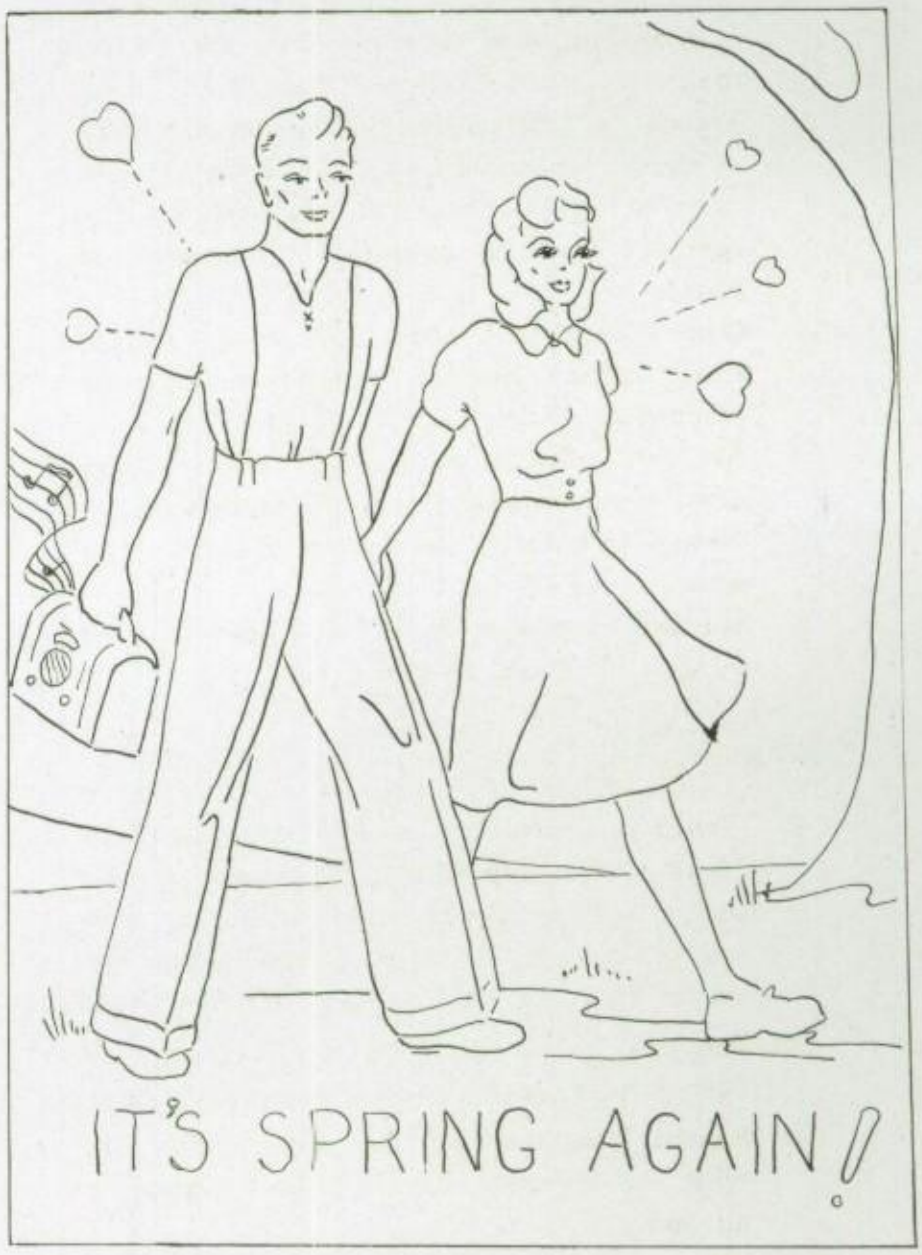
24. By now everybody has heard about how Ray "Hoopla" Hooper was met by three girls at the train on his way home from Columbus.
28. Just what the Boosters have been waiting for! Their joint party! (You fill in the rest.)

April

1. What else is April 1 for, but to act a fool? And nobody can say McKinleyites aren't conventional. (Fred Davies' birthday).
2. Doting mamas and papas see their National Honor students get initiated into the society. And to think they do all that work for a carnation!
3. Seniors voted on their announcements today. This must be the beginning of the end.
4. The rest of the annual goes to press. The staff is talking about a month's vacation on some island—either Hawaii or Alcatraz. AND school dismisses at 3:30 for spring vacation.
8. "Staff" doesn't mean all work. They had plenty of fun at their social at Joan Schreiber's house.
14. Ain't it awful? Vacation's over . . . back to the old grind again.
15. If you love money, don't go near Mina Davis with any in your pockets . . . her favorite indoor sport is matching pennies.
16. Spring football practices assure us that our team isn't going to be half bad next year.
18. Did you know that some of our girls are turning Robin Hood? They're taking up archery. (Or are they trying to give Dan Cupid a little help?)
20. You've probably noticed Grace Webborn's diamond ring . . . she won it for selling the most annuals . . . there's more than one way to get a diamond. She'll get her next one "legally."
25. Just because our band was last on the program of the city-wide concert, that doesn't mean that they were least. Agree?
28. And they expect us to enjoy music week with report cards due Wednesday.

May

1. May is ushered in and Helen Tuttle starts carrying around her "May basket." (manufactured by Yehudi and it looks rather like him.)
2. They tell us on the calendar that this is the end of the eighth school month. Can that mean there's just one more glorious month of school?
5. And who's the smart kid who started the one about "Yehudi's statue." (My but Miss Coleman bites easily).
9. The freshmen are keeping up with the school in spite of their age. They have another party today.
10. The district baseball tournament has started, to say nothing of track, tennis and golf. You can see that McKinleyites have other interests besides football and eating.
13. Now let's take time out to give three cheers for Mary Lou Spanagel for all the hard work she's done on this book. Who says the typist doesn't have much work?



5. The senior girls all have their last minute worries about clothes. Boys, no matter what the occasion, time, or place, women's first thoughts will flash to clothes.
6. Class night . . . those snappy looking seniors were really sophomores three years ago. What Pop Time can do when he gets started!
7. (All this week the poor little forgotten underclassmen have been gazing around in awe. Some of them have decided to quit school in May of their senior year to escape all this rush.)
8. Sunday afternoon, and solemn-faced seniors attend their Baccalaureate service.
9. Freshmen, sophomore, and juniors stop gazing and start cramming for their exams.
10. First night of Commencement gives almost 400 students their diplomas.
11. "It's all over now!" was the wail that arose from the seniors as the other half of the class received their diplomas. Now they won't have to come back any more except for . . .

13. . . . report cards today.

P. S. In spite of all student complaints, not one of you would want to have this past year taken away from you. Don't you agree? And now we seniors have to move out so that you juniors can have the fun and opportunities we have had. As a parting friend we give all the future McKinley students some advice: "Enjoy your school life as much as possible . . . work as well as play . . . and you'll never regret it." So long, chums . . .

15. The great day has arrived! The Times office is crowded with people who want to get their first look at the annual.
16. Tonight is the greatest night in the lives of many McKinleyites. It's the Prom . . . the first for the juniors and the last for the seniors. What an evening of memories to keep!
20. Gym exhibition tonight. No, those people aren't Indians. They're students who've been practicing out in the sun all day.
23. All year Harold Mock has been treating girls to after-school cokes. Now he's going through the list of seniors to find out if he missed any.
24. Students pause in their work and play to think a bit about Memorial Day.

June

2. "June, the month of roses" is changed to "June the month of sniffly noses" as the seniors realize it won't be long before they are obliged to lay aside their books and school activities and go their separate ways.
3. The next three days are set aside by our dear faculty as the days for senior exams.
4. Seniors rehearse for class night. Why, oh why, do all good things have to come to an end?

MY FLOORS AND WOODWORK, TILE AND TUB, I NEVER EVEN HAVE TO SCRUB.
A good housewife was Mary Jean,
She loved to have things bright and clean,
But she didn't like to scrub all day,
And have her life all work, no play.
She learned that Climalene would do
Her cleaning easier, faster, too.
Her woodwork, painted walls and floors
Now have that clean look she adores.
Try this famous work-saver for your cleaning. See how it cuts grease and grime.
